Society

OF THE

Sons of the Revolution

In the State of Virginia.

ORGANIZED - - - - - June 7, 1895.

INCORPORATED - - - - - March 4, 1896.

OBJECT OF THE SOCIETY.

It being evident from a steady decline of a proper celebration of the National holidays of the United States of America, that popular concern in the events and men of the War of the Revolution is gradually declining, and that such lack of interest is attributable, not so much to the lapse of time and the rapidly increasing flood of immigration from foreign countries, as to the neglect on the part of descendants of Revolutionary heroes to perform their duty in keeping before the public mind the memory of the services of their ancestors and of the time in which they lived ; therefore, the "SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE REVOLUTION" has been instituted to perpetuate the memory of the men, who, in the military, naval and civil service of the Colonies and of the Continental Congress, by their acts or counsel achieved the independence of the Country, and to further the proper celebration of the anniversaries of the birthday of Washington and of prominent events connected with the War of the Revolution ; to collect and secure for preservation the rolls, records and other documents relating to that period ; to inspire the members of the Object of the Society.

Society with the patriotic spirit of their forefathers, and to promote the feeling of friendship among them.

Any male person above the age of twenty-one years, of good character, and a descendant of one who, as a military, naval or marine officer, soldier, sailor or marine, in actual service, under the authority of any of the thirteen Colonies or States or of the Continental Congress and remaining always loyal to such authority, or a descendant of one who, as a member of the Continental Congress or of the Congress of any of the Colonies or States, or as an official appointed by or under the authority of any such legislative bodies, actually assisted in the establishment of American independence by services rendered during the War of the Revolution, becoming thereby liable to conviction of treason against the government of Great Britain, but remaining always loyal to the authority of the Colonies or States, shall be eligible to membership in the Society.

By-Laws of the Virginia Society.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

Name of Society.

This Society shall be known by the name, style and title of "THE SONS OF THE REVOLUTION IN THE STATE OF VIRGINIA."

ARTICLE II.

Admission of Members.

Candidates shall send their written application, approved by two members, with documentary or other proofs of qualification for membership, to the Secretary, who shall submit the same to the Committee on Admissions, and upon a favorable report from said Committee to the Board of Managers, and payment of the membership fee and dues for first year, said applicants shall become members of the Society.

ARTICLE III.

Funds.

The membership fee shall be three (3) dollars, which shall be in lieu of dues for the current calendar year; the annual dues three (3) dollars, payable January 1st of each year. The payment at one time of twenty-five (25) dollars in addition to the membership fee shall constitute a life membership. The payment at one time of one hundred (100) dollars shall constitute a perpetual or endowed membership, and upon the death of the member so paying the membership shall be held by the eldest son, or such other descendant from the ancestor from whom he claims descent as he may nominate; in failure of such nomination having been made, the Society may decide which one of the descendants shall hold the membership; provided always, that the Society reserves to itself privilege of rejecting any nomination that may not be acceptable to it. All those holding life or endowed memberships shall be exempt from the payment of annual dues.

By-Laws of the Virginia Society.

ARTICLE IV.

Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Society shall be held in the city of Richmond, Va., on the 22nd of February (except when that day is a Sunday, the meeting shall be held on the next ensuing day), at which a general election of officers and managers by ballot shall take place. In such election a majority of the ballots given for any officer or manager shall constitute a choice; but if, on the first ballot, no person shall receive such majority, then a further balloting shall take place, in which a plurality of votes given for any officer or manager shall determine the choice.

ARTICLE V.

Quorum.

At all meetings of the Society seven (7) members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VI.

The officers of this Society shall be President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Registrar, Historian, Chaplain, and a Board of Managers to consist of nine (9) persons, of whom the President shall be one.

ARTICLE VII.

President.

The President, or in his absence, either of the Vice-Presidents, or in the absence of both of them then a chairman pro tempore, shall preside at all meetings of the Society, and shall have a casting vote. He shall preserve order, and decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Society.

ARTICLE VIII.

Vice-Presidents.

There shall be two Vice-Presidents, First and Second, who shall in the absence or disability of the President or either one of the other, perform all the duties of the President.

ARTICLE IX.

Secretary.

The Secretary shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society. He shall notify all members of their election and of such other matters as may be directed by the Society. He shall have charge of the seal.

By-Laws of the Virginia Society.

certificate of incorporation, By-Laws, and records of the Society. He, together with the presiding officer, shall certify all acts of the Society. He shall, under direction of the President or Vice-President, give due notice of the time and place of all meetings of the Society, and attend the same. He shall keep fair and accurate records of all the proceedings and orders of the Society; and shall give notice to the several officers of all votes, orders, resolves, and proceedings of the Society affecting them or pertaining to their respective duties. He shall have charge of all printing and publications directed by the Society or by the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE X.

Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society; and so often as those sums shall amount to one hundred (100) dollars they shall be deposited in some bank or banking house in the city of Richmond, other than that in which he keeps a personal account, to his credit as "Treasurer of the Virginia Society of the Sons of the Revolution," and shall be drawn thence on the check of the Treasurer for the purposes of the Society only. Out of these funds he shall pay such sums as may be ordered by the Society, or by the Board of Managers. He shall keep a true account of his receipts and payments, and at each annual meeting render the same to the Society, when a committee shall be appointed to audit his accounts. He shall give such security as shall be required by the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE XI.

Registrar.

The Registrar shall keep a roll of members, and in his hands shall be lodged all the proofs of membership qualification, and all the historical and other papers of which the Society may become possessed; and he, under the direction of the Board of Managers, shall make copies of such similar documents as the owners thereof may not be willing to leave permanently in the keeping of the Society.

He, if practicable, shall be a member of the Virginia Historical Society.

ARTICLE XII.

Chaplain.

The Chaplain shall be a regularly ordained minister of a Christian denomination, and shall perform such duties as ordinarily appertain to such office.

By-Laws of the Virginia Society.

ARTICLE XIII.

Board of Managers.

The Board of Managers shall consist of nine (9) members, of whom the President shall ex officio be one. They shall elect their own chairman and secretary. In case of a vacancy in any of these offices, the Board may fill the same until the next election. They shall judge of the qualifications of the candidates for admission to the Society, and upon the recommendation of the Committee on Admissions, shall have power to elect the same to membership. They shall, through the Secretary, call special meetings at any time, upon the written request of three members of the Society, and at such other times as they see fit. They shall recommend plans for promoting the objects of the Society, shall digest and prepare business, and shall authorize the disbursement and expenditure of unappropriated money in the treasury for the payment of the current expenses of the Society. They shall generally superintend the interests of the Society, and execute all such duties as may be committed to them by the Society. At each annual meeting of the Society they shall make a general report. At all meetings of the Board of Managers four members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE XIV.

Committee on Admissions.

The Chairman of the Board of Managers shall appoint annually three members thereof as a Committee on Admissions, whose duty it shall be to pass upon the qualifications of applicants for admission to the Society, and report to the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE XV.

Historian.

The Board of Managers shall have power annually to appoint an Historian, who shall keep a detailed record, to be deposited with the Registrar, of all the historical and commemorative celebrations of the Society; and he shall edit and prepare for publication such addresses, essays, papers and other documents of an historical character (other than a Register of Members), as the Secretary may be required to publish; and at every annual meeting, if there be a necrological list for the year then closing, he shall submit the same with carefully prepared biographies of the deceased members.

By-Laws of the Virginia Society.

ARTICLE XVI.

Expulsion and Suspension.

The Board of Managers shall have power to expel any enrolled member of this Society who, by conduct unbecoming a gentleman and a man of honor, or by an opposition to the interests of the community in general or of this Society in particular, may render himself unworthy to continue a member, or who shall persistently transgress, or, without good excuse, willfully neglect or fail in the performance of any obligation enjoined by the Constitution, By-Laws or any standing rule of this Society: Provided, that such member shall have received at least ten days' notice in writing of the complaint preferred against him, and of the time and place of hearing the same, and have been thereby afforded an opportunity to be heard in person. The Secretary shall notify the members of this Society and the Secretaries of the other State Societies of such expulsion.

Whenever the cause of expulsion shall not have involved turpitude or moral unworthiness, any member thus expelled may, upon the unanimous recommendation of the Board of Managers, but not otherwise, be restored to membership by the Society at any meeting.

The Board of Managers shall drop from the Roll the name of any enrolled member of the Society who shall be two years in arrears in the payment of dues, and who, on notice to pay the same, shall fail and neglect to do so within thirty days thereafter, and upon being thus dropped, his membership shall cease and determine; but he may be restored to membership at any time by the Board of Managers, on his application therefor, and upon his payment of all such arrears. The Board of Managers may also suspend any officer from the performance of his duties, for cause, which proceeding must be reported to the Society and acted upon by it within thirty days, either by rescission of the suspension or removal of the suspended officer from office, or otherwise the suspension shall cease.

ARTICLE XVII.

Disqualification.

No person who may be enrolled as a member of this Society shall be permitted to continue in membership when the proof of claim of qualification by descent shall be found to be defective and insufficient to substantiate such claim, or not properly authenticated; the Society or the Board of Managers may at any time after thirty days' notice to such person to properly substantiate or authenticate his claim, require the Secretary to erase his name from the list of members, and such person shall thereupon cease to be a member, provided he shall have failed to or neglected to comply satisfactorily with such notice.

Where the Board of Managers shall direct the erasure of a person's name for a cause comprehended under this section, such person shall have a right of appeal to the next annual meeting of the Society, but he shall not be restored to membership unless by a vote of three-fourths of members present on that occasion, or at a subsequent meeting to which the consideration of the appeal may have been specifically postponed.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Service of Notices.

It shall be the duty of every member to inform the Secretary, by written communication, of his place of residence, his postoffice address, and any change thereof.

Service of any notice under the Constitution or By-Laws, upon any member of the Society addressed by him at his last recorded place of residence or postoffice address, and forwarded by mail, shall be deemed sufficient service of such notice.

ARTICLE XIX.

Delegates to the General Society.

Delegates to the General Society shall be chosen by the members of this Society at its meeting next preceding that of the General Society; and, failing such choice, shall be selected by the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE XX.

Alterations or Amendments.

No alteration or amendment of the By-Laws of the Society shall be made unless notice thereof shall be duly given in writing, signed by the member proposing the same at a meeting of the Society, and unless the same shall be adopted at a subsequent meeting, held at least thirty days after such notice by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

In Memoriam

RICHARD THOMAS WALKER DUKE.

1822 - 1898

Col. R. T. W. DUKE was born in Albemarle county, June 6th, 1822, at "Millbrook," his father's seat. He died at "Sunny-Side," his residence in that county, July 2nd, 1898. He was the grandson of Clevears Duke, Jr., of the Fifth Regiment Virginia Line; grandson of Captain Thomas Walker, Jr., in Ninth Virginia Line, and great-grandson of Thomas Walker, member of the Committee of Safety, Virginia House of Burgesses, 1775.

He graduated second in the class of 1844, Virginia Military Institute, and in 1850 commenced the practice of law at Charlottesville, Virginia. In 1858 he was elected Commonwealth's Attorney of Albemarle county. In 1861 he entered the Confederate Army as Captain of Company "B," Nineteenth Virginia Infantry. In 1862 was Colonel Forty-sixth Virginia Infantry, and in 1865 commanded the Reserve forces in Richmond. He was prisoner of war on Johnson Island—having been captured April 6th, 1865, at the battle of Sailor's Creek—until July, 1865.

He was elected, as a Democrat, to the Forty-first Congress, U. S. A., and re-elected to Forty-second Congress. He was a member of the Virginia Legislature of 1880-81 as a debt-paying Democrat.

At the Bar for many years recognized as one of its leaders; in political life always true to the early and noble principles of high statesmanship; in war fearless and patriotic; his private life was one of singular beauty and sweetness, honored by his people, beloved by his friends and wellnigh adored by those who were of his own blood.

Two sons, Hon. Wm. R. Duke and Judge R. T. W. Duke, Jr., and one granddaughter, Mary W. D. Slaughter, survive him.

His wife, Elizabeth Scott Eskridge, died January 13th, 1896.
